

Camanachd Association

PRESIDENT - ELECT

Role Description

Role Overview

The President-elect will shadow the President of the Board of Directors of a company limited by guarantee for up to five months ahead of the AGM at which a new President will be elected.

If the President-elect is currently a Director then the role description relating to that role will still apply. If new to the Board the President-elect will be an observer on the Board.

Responsibilities

1. As an Observer

- As an observer the individual will undertake to keep themselves abreast of issues and opportunities affecting the Board and input information into discussions that may assist with decision making.
- Ensure confidentiality of Board matters is upheld

2. As President-elect

- Provide support to the President in preparing for the AGM
- Undertake any duties as delegated by the President
- Ensure opportunity is taken to learn about the work of the Camanachd Association and the role of the President
- Attend Board meetings
- speak for the organisation when authorised to do so by the Board
- represent the organisation at public gatherings where invited to do so by the President

Person Specification

Please refer to person specification for President