President's Welcome

On behalf of the Camanachd Association Board and staff I'd like to welcome you all to Bught Park for the 2026 Chieftain's Cup Final. Our thanks to Inverness for hosting today's cup final and for use of their excellent facilities.

Lewis and Glengarry come into today's final in fine form, Glengarry pushing for the North 1 title; while Lewis are just two points off leaders Lovat in North 2.

It is evident that our beloved sport could not thrive without the crucial role of our officials, and I trust all will join me in offering thanks to Bart Bukowski and his team for their all of their commitment and passion. I am confident both teams will demonstrate the athleticism and skill our sport requires, while competing with honour and sportsmanship.

May the best team win!

CHIEFTAIN'S CUP

The Single Team Cup has been renamed in honour of Captain Archibald Macra Chisholm of Glassburn.

Captain Chisholm, born in Strathglass in July 1825, was a towering figure in Highland life. A veteran of the Black Watch, a respected Justice of the Peace, and a skilled piper elected to the Highland Society of London, he was a man deeply rooted in Gaelic culture and tradition.

Yet it is his contribution to shinty that secures his place in history. Founder of Strathglass Shinty Club in 1879, author of the sport's first written rules in 1880, leader of his Strathglass men onto the field for the historic 1887 and 1888 matches against Glenurquhart at Bught Park and a driving force behind the formation of the Camanachd Association in 1893, Captain Chisholm was elected its very first Chief and remained in this role until his death in 1897. His vision and leadership helped shape the modern game.

The Chieftain's Cup is shinty's newest cup competition, first being competed for in 2022 as the "Single Team Cup". Open to teams with only one team, it aims to provide the opportunity for shinty's smaller clubs to win silverware and introduce a new even level of competition to these clubs.
