

BULLOUGH CUP FINAL 2025

STRACHUR
THROW UP: 14.30

SATURDAY
16TH AUGUST

President's Welcome

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to Cannich for the 2025 Chieftain's Cup Final – a competition introduced in 2022 to celebrate and support our proud single-team clubs.

This year's finalists, Oban Celtic and Ballachulish, are two of the oldest teams in the game, featuring prominently in the records of trophy winners in the past. It is great to see them both make their first appearance in a national final in many years, and I offer my warmest congratulations to both squads for their achievement. Their presence here is a testament to commitment, community spirit, and the hard work of the volunteers that make our sport happen.

We are honoured to bring the final to Cannich, the home of Captain Archibald Macra Chisholm, founding father of Strathglass, first author of the game's rules, and the inaugural Chief of the Camanachd Association in 1893.

My thanks go to Strathglass for hosting today's final and for helping us honour a man whose passion and vision shaped the game we love.

Best of luck to both clubs – and may the final reflect all that is best in shinty.

Burton Morrison

President, Camanachd Association
